AN IMARI LAMP

Japan, circa 1700

A fine early 18th century Japanese Imari vase of baluster form, decorated throughout in the typical Imari palette of dark blues, iron reds with gilt highlights on a white background, the central panels with wonderful flowering chrysanthemums framed with stylised decorative motifs, now mounted as a lamp with a hand-gilded turned base.

Height of vase: 17 in (43 cm) including giltwood base, excluding electrical fitments and lampshades.

All of our lamps can be wired for use worldwide. A selection of card, linen or silk lampshades can be supplied on request.
