A GEORGE III CHIPPENDALE PERIOD CHEST OF DRAWERS

England, circa 1765

A fine George III Chippendale period mahogany chest of drawers of outstanding colour and patina, with moulded top above two short drawers and then three graduated long drawers, with box wood stringing, original handles and standing on shaped bracket feet, the escutcheons charmingly inlaid with contrasting fruitwood. A very elegant and simple chest of drawers made wonderful by its extraordinary colour - of very pleasing proportion, it stands very well and is very practical with ample storage. Ideal for a bedroom, dressing-room or in a hallway.
