A George I Burr Walnut Bachelors Chest

England, circa 1720

An exceptional quality George I period burr walnut bachelors chest, of magnificent colour and patina. The top quarter-veneered and cross-banded also with herringbone inlay, folding over to reveal a finely veneered interior surface, above two short drawers and three graduated long drawers, standing on shaped bracket feet, retaining period brass handles and escutcheons.

A lovely example, of excellent proportions.
