A GEORGE III MAHOGANY CHEST OF DRAWERS

England, circa 1760

A fine George III Chippendale period serpentine front chest of drawers of rare small proportions, with a brushing slide above four graduated serpentine drawers, each with swan neck handles. The serpentine top cross-banded and with segmented radial veneers around a fantastic oval panel of flame mahogany. With checker stringing inlaid throughout. Standing on shaped bracket feet. With inlaid canted corners.

The mahogany of superb colour throughout.
