

MACKINNON

FINE FURNITURE

A GEORGE II ROSEWOOD AND YEW WOOD BLANKET CHEST

England, circa 1750

A rare George II rosewood and burr yew wood coffer or blanket chest. The upper part with a hinged top, the top sides and front in rosewood crossbanded in burr yew, purple heart banding with boxwood and ebonised lines. The two drawers also crossbanded and inlaid and retaining their original handles, supported on a stand with square chamfered legs.

Of excellent colour. A striking and beautifully made piece of furniture.

Height: 2' 11³/₈" in (90 cm)

Width: 4' 0" in (122 cm)

Depth: 1' 11¹/₄" in (59 cm)

Stock Number

AD.181

5 Ryder Street - St James's - London, SW1Y 6PY

Phone: +44(0)20 7839 5671 Mobile: +44(0)7725 332 665

Email: charlie@mackinnonfineart.com Web: mackinnonfineart.com

