A PAIR OF GEORGE III GILTWOOD ARMCHAIRS

England, circa 1770

A fine pair of George III giltwood open armchairs attributed to John Cobb. In the French taste, standing on giltwood cabriole legs carved to the front with stylised shells to the knees and with scroll toes, the giltwood arm supports fluted and outswept with scrolled handles. The backs, seats and armrests upholstered in a Colefax & Fowler chintz.
