FINE FURNITURE

A GEORGE I WALNUT CHEST ON CHEST

England, circa 1720

A very fine George I walnut chest on chest of particularly good colour and patina. Well proportioned and standing extremely well, with a moulded square cut cornice above two short drawers and three long drawers in the upper section, above a further three long graduated drawers in the lower section, standing on shaped bracket feet. The drawer fronts all with beaded edge, feather banding and book matched veneers, and retaining their original brass handles and escutcheons. With fluted canted corners to the upper section and cross-banded side panels.
