A GEORGE III BREAKFAST TABLE

England, circa 1780

A very fine George III Sheraton period mahogany breakfast table. Of rare small scale, the oval mahogany cross-banded top of superb colour patination, with particularly good natural figuring to the timber, with a moulded edge and wide cross-banding. On a turned baluster single pedestal with four elegant outswept legs terminating in brass box castors.

Superb colour and natural figuring to the top.
