FINE FURNITURE

A REGENCY PERIOD OVAL TRIPOD TABLE

England, circa 1805

SOLD

A rare Regency tripod table designed by George Smith. The oval top veneered in densely figured amboyna, cross-banded in purpleheart and bordered by an ebony and pierced brass moulding. The triform base headed by a reeded and gilt boss with three sweeping supports over a triform platform base, veneered with amboyna with a central carved patera with scrolled sides and painted flowers over carved and ebonised paw feet. The table closely follows a drawing by the celebrated designer George Smith entitled 'Dejuné Table' from 1805, plate 82 in his Collection of Designs for Household Furniture (published 1808).
