FINE FURNITURE

A QUEEN ANNE GREEN JAPANNED PIER MIRROR

circa 1710

For comparison, a pair of similar pier-glasses formerly in the important collection of Percival Griffiths - see R.W.Symonds, English Furniture from Charles II to George II, London, 1929, p. 284, fig. 227

A very fine and rare Queen Anne green and gilt chinoiserie japanned pier mirror. The pierced cresting and cushion with particularly fine gilded chinoiserie decoration on a rare green japanned background. The original divided mirror plates with bevelled edge. In particularly fine original condition.
