

MACKINNON

FINE FURNITURE

A CHARLES II MIRROR

England, circa 1680

SOLD

A very rare and important late 17th century Charles II Baroque frame, with a rectangular mirror plate held within a berried stiff-leaf carved slip, encompassed by pierced scrolled acanthus, fruit, flowers and pomegranates, with two opposing cherubs and scallop shell angles, the apron with a central winged cherub mask and floral swag, the cresting comprising a pair of opposing seated cherubs flanking a scrolled cartouche surmounted by a Royal crown. With remnants of the original silver leaf decoration on the gessoed finish.

Height: 4' 7¹/₈" in (140 cm)

Width: 3' 6¹/₂" in (108 cm)

Stock Number

R09.153

5 Ryder Street - St James's - London, SW1Y 6PY

Phone: +44(0)20 7839 5671 Mobile: +44(0)7725 332 665

Email: charlie@mackinnonfineart.com Web: mackinnonfineart.com

