A MALLETT LOW TABLE

England, The Book Bindings Early 19th Century

A superb painted and glazed coffee or low table by Mallett of New Bond Street. The top inset with a rare panel of early 19th century gilt tooled leather book spines of graduated sizes, possibly originally used as a false door, inset within a bespoke stipple gilded frame and mounted a low table with a chinoiserie inspired Cobham leg base. With an inset protective glass top.
