

MACKINNON

FINE FURNITURE

A GEORGE III BREAKFAST TABLE

England, circa 1800

A fine large late 18th century George III period mahogany, satinwood and tulipwood crossbanded oval breakfast or centre table, in the manner of Gillows of Lancaster & London, supported on a gun-barrel stem with four splayed legs ending with brass box castors.

The mahogany with very good colour and patina throughout.

Height: 2' 4³/₄" in (73 cm)
Width: 5' 2" in (157.5 cm)
Depth: 3' 11⁵/₈" in (121 cm)

Stock Number

U09.92

5 Ryder Street - St James's - London, SW1Y 6PY

Phone: +44(0)20 7839 5671 Mobile: +44(0)7725 332 665

Email: charlie@mackinnonfineart.com Web: mackinnonfineart.com

